To Whom It May Concern,

Subject: Recommendation Letter for Hiwot Tariku Menjiye

It is my distinct pleasure to write this recommendation letter for Hiwot Tariku Menjiye, a dedicated and motivated undergraduate student from our department. As the Head of the Department of Information Technology, I have the privilege of closely monitoring the academic status, progress, and performance of our students across each course in the curriculum.

While this entire graduating batch is exceptional—distinguished by their remarkable dedication, discipline, and effort—Hiwot stands out within this cohort for her unwavering commitment to academic excellence. Through my direct evaluation in the classroom and close monitoring of her overall academic progress, I can firmly attest to her strong conceptual and practical foundation in IT, sharp analytical abilities, and relentless drive to master complex technical challenges.

Beyond her academic metrics, Hiwot is an exemplary member of our academic community. She is consistently respectful, highly responsible, and collaborates exceptionally well with both faculty and peers in team environments. She possesses a mature willingness to learn, accept feedback, and continuously improve her skill set. Her positive attitude, integrity, and perseverance make her an outstanding student.

I have no hesitation whatsoever in recommending Hiwot Tariku Menjiye for any postgraduate academic admission, employment opportunity, or project competition. Given her proven dedication and disciplined approach, I am entirely confident that she will continue to achieve great success and make meaningful contributions wherever she goes.

Please feel free to contact me if you require any additional information regarding her qualifications.

Sincerely,

Zerihun Olana
